Signs will be posted around Gowen Field directing traffic to the various events that will be going on during the Boise Valley Event. Vendors from any participating tribes are welcome to set up, and will be responsible for any taxes required to be collected. Please make sure you are checking into this prior to setting up for business.

If you are an elder and need lodging please make sure you contact your local committee right away to sign up for a room. If you need handicap access please advise your local committees. There are only a few handicap access rooms available we will do our best to accommodate you.
